Scholarship Awards Luncheon

Event Recap

Thursday, April 21, 2016 • California Market Center

April 21, 2016 - California Fashion Foundation's annual Scholarship Awards Luncheon was held at the California Market Center today, honoring future fashion designer innovators with scholarship awards. Scholarships were presented in the names of YMA National Fashion Scholarship Fund, AIMS360, Betty L. Baumgardner Foundation, California Apparel News, California Market Center, CIT Commercial Services, Cohn Handler Sturm, Cooper Design Space, Design Knit, Ben B. & Joyce E. Eisenberg Foundation, Fineman West, Karen Kane, KWDZ Manufacturing, MGT Industries, Moss Adams, STC-QST, Stony Apparel, SWAT-FAME, Tukatech, UPS, Velvet Heart, and Barbara Lesser for Wearable Integrity.

After previewing the winning designs, attendees enjoyed lunch from the New Moon restaurant (provided by STC-QST), 'pep talks', and the award presentations. Ilse Metchek, President of the California Fashion Association welcomed the guests and introduced the speakers. Tammy Chatkin, Executive Vice President of 24Seven Talent, shared advice on "Entering the Job Market", Pat Tabassi, Designer/Owner of Design Knit, gave insights into "The Road Ahead", and Jesse Dombrowiak, CEO of Indie Source described a "New Home for Design Entrepreneurs."

Douglas Evans, Executive Director of the YMA Fashion Scholarship Fund presented scholarships to all design student finalists. Each sponsor then presented a 'Fashion Star Award' to winning finalists. Ann Davis of Eclat Textiles presented the Betty L. Baumgardner Award for "Best Use of Textiles" and Lonnie Kane, CEO of Karen Kane, presented the Karen Kane Award for "Best Design Presentation." The technology awards were presented by Ram Sareen, President of Tukatech and Henry Cherner of AIMS360. Each student received a gift bag and book from The Fashion Bookstore.

Participating schools were: Academy of Art University-San Francisco, Art Institute of California-Hollywood, Cal State Polytechnic University-Pomona, Cal State University-Los Angeles, Cal State University-Long Beach, El Camino College, Fashion Institute of Design & Merchandising, Los Angeles Trade Tech College, Long Beach City College, Mt.
