2013 GLOBAL TEXTILE AND APPAREL SUPPLY CHAIN CONFERENCE IN CHINA

June 18, 2013...

The Global Textile and Apparel Supply Chain Conference (TASCC) featured speakers from global apparel producing regions. In its sixth year, the conference focused on developing trends of the global apparel supply chain.

The annual conference is organized by the China Textile Information Center (CTIC) and the China National Garment Association (CNGA), and was held in the town of Humen in the Guangdong Province. Over 400 executive level attendees were on hand. Shenzhen is the city planned for next year's conference.

Ilse Metchek, President of the California Fashion Association, was invited to present programs entitled 'Understanding the U.S. Market for Apparel and Textiles' and 'How to Succeed in the Global Marketplace'. Featured CFA member speakers included Thomas Burns and Jamie Ross of the Doneger Group, and Richard Kestenbaum of Triangle Capital. Other presentations were offered by representatives from France, England, Italy, Singapore, Korea, and Hong Kong.

Webinar:

A Product Of Where? Country Of Origin Marking 101

Every article of foreign origin entering the U.S. must be legibly marked with its country of origin. This requirement places the responsibility on manufacturers and exporters and exposes these trade professionals to potential penalties and sanctions for non-compliance. This webinar will provide attendees with a basic overview of the country of origin marking regulations and tips on ensuring compliance.

Key topics to be addressed:

- Acceptable terminology
- Methods for marking
- "Made in USA" FTC v. CBP rules
- Procedures regarding certificate of origin completion
- Procedures regarding entry procedures and claims
- Penalties for non-compliance
- Best practices

Speaker: Donna Bade is a member of Sandler, Travis & Rosenberg, P.A., and manages the firm's Chicago office. She focuses her practice on import and export trade law, trade regulations and customs law, regulatory law and transportation law.

Date: Tuesday, August 6, 2013

Time: 10am -11am PST
