The 10th Annual CFF Christmas Party for 200 Neighborhood Children

Date: December 11, 2019

For the 20th year, the CALIFORNIA FASHION FOUNDATION organized a party for 200 elementary school children from the downtown district; from Para Los Niños, Boys & Girls Club, L.A., Alexandria House, and Boys & Girls Club of E.L.A. Hosted by the Cooper Design Space, with gorgeous decorations, a DJ, dancing, photo booth, balloon artists, and great food by Amante Restaurant.... and a visit from 'Santa' handing out giant FIDM gift bags stuffed with toys, games, clothing, books and more...a great time was had by all!

Steve Hirsh, owner of the Cooper Design Space said, "This is a special event that we look forward to hosting all year - the joyful look on the kid's faces when they see Santa in a winter wonderland setting is a truly heartwarming experience for everyone involved."

CFF Director, Ilse Metchek added, "All children deserve a celebration this time of year. When you see their joy at the CFF party; the fun, the food, a visit with Santa, and the big bag of gifts, it makes us all happier; it just doesn't get much better than that!"

Gift Sponsors: Grab A Ball & Play Foundation, FIDM, Jakk's Pacific, Jerry Leigh, Nature USA.
