Obituary

Bruce Corbin of Glendale, California, passed peacefully at home on October 5, 2021.

Bruce was the Senior Vice President of Union Bank until his retirement in 2010, with an office in the California Mart (now the California Market Center) until 1999. He was the longest-tenured employee in the bank's history (60 years).

Born January 3, 1933, in Sidney, Nebraska, Bruce lived a full life of love and friendship.

Moving from Nebraska to Glendale in 1945, Bruce took a job at Union Bank in downtown Los Angeles at the age of 17. He worked until he could afford to enroll and pursue a degree in finance from UCLA, including two years serving in the United States Army during the Korean conflict.

While Bruce's early career was spent in commercial lending as a regional vice president, Bruce also shined in 'customer relations' managing the bank's charitable foundation in Los Angeles and Orange County for 25 years..

Bruce earned a reputation as a businessman and a man with a heart of gold who wanted to leave his mark on the organizations that inspired him, and he was honored as the Man of the Year by the Cedars Sinai Hospital in 1996.

Bruce's other passion in life was golf. As a long-time member of Oakmont Country Club in Glendale, he could often be found on the course with many great friends he made over the years.

Bruce is survived by his wife, JoAnn. They were happily married for over 62 years, raising their children Mark and Kathy, and grandchildren Amanda, Nicholas, Kyle, and great-granddaughter Olivia.

Truly, a life well-lived.
