Quiet Quitting, Labor Hoarding and Other Workplace Trends, Explained

October 28, 2022

The challenging climate for fashion firms and their employees.

Insights:

- The pandemic shifted workplace routines and employees' expectations
- Companies need to monitor their workers for signs of disengagement and take "quiet quitting" as a call to action.
- After the difficulty of rehiring workers after the lockdowns were lifted, firms are "labor hoarding," or putting off layoffs even as the economy cools.
