CFA Virtual Meetings with Legislators Re: New Liability on SB 62

The California Fashion Association continues to meet (virtually) with California Legislators to express opposition to SB 62. The bill was already passed by the State Senate and is now heading to the Assembly floor.

Alternately, we have been joined by the California Chamber of Commerce, Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, California Retailers Association, California Manufacturing Technology Association, Scott Wilson of Ustrive, and Lonnie Kane.

In the month of August, we have spoken with administrators from the offices of:

Assemblymember Evan Low

Represented by staffer: Mao Yang - mao.yang@asm.ca.gov

Assemblymember Robert Rivas

Represented by staffer: Alejandra Garcia - alejandra.garcia@asm.ca.gov

Assemblymember Marc Levine
